BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

No Material Improvement in General Trade.

By Southern Associated Press.

By Southern Associated Press.

New York, January 4.—Brad street's to morrow will say:

There has been no material improvement in general trade. At large Eastern cities only a moderate volume of business is reported at Buffalo, Boston inclining to regard the near outlook more hopefully. Philadelphia and Pittsburg are naturally affected somewhat by lower quotations for iron and steel and Baltimore prefers awaiting orders from commercial travelers before expressing opinions on the outlook. General trade is reported quiet at Charleston, Nashville and Memphis, with mercantile collections fair only. At Chattanooga and Atlanta very

At Chattanooga and Atlanta very little is doing in wholesale lines, the former reporting manufactures quiet as a result of prolonged holiday in-fluences and the weather. At Savan-nah trade is quiet, Cotton manu-facturers are taking some new con-tracts but merchants will act with xtreme conservatism. extreme conservatism.

City and country trade is reported fairly satisfactory by Jacksonville. Damage from extremely cold weather in Florida to fruit and vegetables is quite heavy, orange growers being affected seriously. At Birmingham manufacturers report orders scattered, general trade quiet and collections only fair. There is only a small volume of business at New Orleans and collections are slow. At Gialveston trade is very quiet and Galveston trade is very quiet and orders are for needs only.

All Western cities announce practically unchanged trade conditions and light or moderate volumes of By Southern Associated Press.
